OMAHA WAS AN EASY PROPOSITION FOR KANSAS CITY.

Gear and Engan Pitched Great Ball-Phenomenal Work of Connaughton and Viox-Smiling Pete Daniels Was Hard Hit.

The Fourth of July celebration carrie on yesterday morning and afternoon by the Kansas City Blues was a most impressiv and enjoyable affair. Amid the firing o giant crackers, the shooting of guns, the waving of flags and the clapping of hands Chauncey Fisher's Omnhogs were slaughtered. The Bines piled up nineteen runs in the two games while during the day but one of the Fisher family measured the one of the Fisher family measured the entire distance around the diamond course. The scores were 10-0, 9-1.

There was no listless, half-hearted work in connection with the Blues' playing yesterday. On the other hand, they gave about as pretty an exhibition as one could hope often to see. Both Eagan and Gear, who pliched the two games for Kansas City, were in great form, allowing the visitors to do but little with the stick. Gear lad a little the better of the pitching honors, only five hits having been made off his delivery, but Eagan did not permit the opponents to touch him at critical stages. The playing of Connaughton and Viox was sensational. The bail that could be reached by a stepladder was never allowed to pass the northeast corner of the field, as one or the other of this energetic pair was always on hand to corral it. The stick work of the Blues yesterday also showed a great improvement, and, altogether, the team played in the magnificent form in which it appeared two weeks ago.

First Game.

First Game. What "Rip" Eagan didn't do to Minneapolis last week he did to Omaha in the morning game yesterday "Rip" pitched winning ball and was given almost perfect support, the Blues displaying the same ginger and snap which characterized their work in the good old days before the war. They cavorted about the field confidently and smashed grounders and killed flies with as much ease as they had muffed and bobbled nem on Sunday. On the face of things it would seem that

On the face of things it would seem that the Fishers, with nine hits, including a double and a triple, should have been able to place at least one dot in the run column, but Eagan kept the hits beautifully scattered. On the other hand, the Blues pounded Collegian Daub about as they pleased until the eighth inning when Fisher recognized the fact that all was off with his men and surrendered to Manning, sending Wadsworth into the box just to give the pitcher probationer a chance to show what he could do.

worth into the box just to give the pitcher probationer a chance to show what he could do.

The only error made by, Kansas City occurred in the seventh inning, when Connaughton threw over Viox' head and allowed rreston to advance from second to third. Connaughton more than made up for this play by two remarkably pretty catches, one of a foul outside the left field line and another of a low drive watch he caught just a few inches above the ground. There was no scoring in the initial inning. Connaughton, the only one of the Blues who reached first, waiked to the bag and was thrown out while trying to purloin second. For the visitors Roat, the third man up, hit for two bags but Pickering was retired easily, causing the big shortstop to die on second.

Jimmie Williams struck out in the second but Wilson and O'Hagan picked out good balls and hit safely, while Viox' long fly to right assisted them in the work of gathering two runs. Daub was not a remarkably hard proposition in the third, and Siagle, Frisbee and Connaughton singled. Slagle stole third, after advancing on Frisbee's hit and scored on Connaughton's drive to left, Preston threw wild when the ball shot off in the direction of the grandstand.

the ball shot off in the direction of the grandstand.

In the fourth inning Eagan hit over Eustace and advanced to third on Preston's fumble after Slagle had found Daub for a bag. The side was retired when Slagle attempted to steal second. It was one, two, three in the fifth, and McVicker's double was the only feature of round six. Frisbee's double in the seventh was followed by Connaughton's single. Williams hit a grounder to Eustace and Frisbee was run down between third hase and the plate. O'Hagan scored Connaughton with a single and Roat's fumble of McVicker's grounder gave Williams right of way home.

In the righth Eagan bunted his way to first. Slagle walked, Fleming made a ridiculous must of Frisbee's fly and Williams singled. Kansas City's total was swelled three points. The score:

Second Game.

Blues trotted around the course and back over the rubber at the southwest corner of the diamond, whining the game as easily as they took the morning contest.

"Smiling Pete" Daniels, the same old Peter, with the same old smile, made his initial appearance in an Omaha uniform and his old Kansas City friends gave him a warm receivion. He became exceedingly popular with the Blues the moment he was introduced to them. Daniels occasionally struck out a man, but generally the Kansas City players due hits out of his delivery about as they pleased taking advantage of a good opportunity to swell their batting averages white they were beating out the game.

Dale Gear pitched a game which certainly entitles him to admission to the gallery of Fourth of July heroes, which Eagan entered in the morning Gear had great control of the ball and kept his opponents guessing from the start. In six of the aline innings they did not come in halling distance of a base hit, and in two of the remaining three a lone single was all the shagers were able to produce.

The baseball public doesn't see the kind of fielding same the Blues gave more than once or twice in a generation. "Rooney" Viox and Frank Commanghton were the bright particular stars and carried on an exciting contest, each one apparently Viox and Frank Connaughton were the bright particular stars and carried on an exciting contest, each one apparently striving to outdo the other in the performance of sensational feats. Viox started his phenomenal work in the second inning. Hollingsworth rapped a sharp grounder between first and second, which "Rooney" corraled with his left hand, passing the ball to his other land in time to throw out the runner at first. In the seventh inning Connaughton nailed Hollingsworth's line drive by a high leap into space.

The Blues commenced the onslaught on Daniels in the second inning. Williams hit ever Eustace for a bag, Wilson singled into right and went around to third on Fleming's bad fumble. Williams scoring. O Hagan singled McVicker sacrificed and errors by Pickering, Preston and Roat assisted the Roues in getting four runs, Prisbee, Commagation and Wilson hit safely, and Williams sacrificed, in the third, scoring two. Another run was added in the fourth on singles by McVicker and Friebee, McVicker's steal of second base goal Eustace's failure to hold the ball when McCauley threw to third to catch the runner. Williams' double in the fifth was followed by McVicker's fly to center, Daniels bit O Hagan and the Bridgeroom walked. With two men on bars Gear hit into right, scoring both, This brought the total up to nine and ended the run-getting for the Elues.

Daniels scored Omala's only run in the third. Pete gained first on fielder's choice. for the Blues.

Danie's scored Omaha's only run in the third. Pete gained first on fielder's choice, advanced to second on Eustace's hit, to third on McVicker's fumble and came home

BLUES TOOK THEM BOTH when Roat singled. In no other inning did about as sorry an exhibition as was ever more than four of the Omahogs come to bat. The score:

While there was considerable excitement when the blaze was discovered under the grand stand, people generally retained their composure, nobody fainted, and there was no panic. The park hose was near by, and the blaze was extinguished without any damage being done.

Some smart young men in the grand stand amused themselves yesterday alternoon by throwing glant fire crackers at the umpire and players. One of the crackers went of not more than two feet from Wilson's face when he was standing close up to the plate. Performances of that character ought not to be allowed.

MIGHTY SON OF HANOVER WINS REALIZATION STAKES.

Plandit As Second and George Boyd Third-Hamburg Secured an Eurly Lead and Merely Played With the Others.

NEW YORK, July 4.-The usual large holiday crowd made its appearance at Sheapshead Bay to-day and although the thunder storms followed each other somewhat too rapidly for comfort they sow some good sport. The chief event of the day was the Realization stakes for 3-yearolds at a mile and five-eighths. Hamburg was the favorite, while Plaudit, the winner of many Western races, was a strong sec-ond choice and the brother of the great Henry of Navarre, The Huguenot, was the third choice. The race was run in the pouring rain amid the crashes of thunder and almost constant lightning.

They got away well with The Huguenot in front. The Huguenot maintained his lead through the first mile of the journey and then Hamburg rushed past the Toompson representative and as they rounded the lower turn began to open a gap which he seemed to be able to make as much as he pleased.

When they were straightened out on the back stretch he was five lengths in front and going easily, while rhaudit and The Huguenot were struggling in the rear for the place. After a mile and a quarter had been run, it could be seen that the mighty son of Hanover was playing with the others. From that point on Sloan took a steadying pull on Hamburg and he won easily by a length, merely galloping at the end. Plaudit was fifteen lengths ahead of George Boyd. Summary:

Remp winning by a good half length. On the first turn Millstream tried to get through the bunch and was knocked down, injuring Jockey Southard. CHICAGO July 4-"Umbrella Bill' Mc Guigan's Bannockburn won the Sheridan stakes to-day in hollow style. His last race was such a bad one that no one supposed he had a chance to beat Pink coat, but the latter had hard work to beat Goodrich for second money. There was nothing to the race, for Bannockburn went out in front with the pace and won all th way. Souchon broke another track record when he beat Survivor at 4½ furlongs. There were 20,000 present. A PONY'S SMARTNESS.

when we were having lunch we heard a strange scratching sound, and then as if someone were trying to turn the handle of the door. Our housemaid went and opened the door to see what it was, and there stood the beker's pony and cart. His master had left him in the road while he went to the next house, and the pony had turned round and himself tried to open the door. Of course, we were amused to hear what it was, and the door was shut again. The next minute came one loud decided knock, evidently from the door hocker. That can't be the pony, we all cried, at the same time rushing to the door-but it was. He was standing with his front feet on the payement, quietly waiting, and very pleased at his success. Of course, we gave him some bread, biscuits and sugar as a reward for his cieveness. He must have taken the knocker in his teeth."
